

Children who may not want to go to school for different reasons

Children who may become involved in anti-social or criminal behaviour

Routines and family rules

Children who are caring for a family member

Keeping to a healthy lifestyle

Families who may not be eating healthy food

Children at risk of being groomed to join groups which support illegal views

Catshill Federation Support for Children and Families

Children in the family have special educational needs (SEND)

Children at risk of being tricked, forced, or made to work in the criminal world

Disability within the family including children being a young carer

Children who go missing from home

Children who have parents who argue a lot (and sometimes might hurt each other) whether the parents live together or apart

A privately fostered child (a child from another family living within your family home)

Children who may need support because they may live in a home and see drug, alcohol abuse or adult mental health problems

